TOPICS

The Conference aims to bring together researchers from academia, research organizations and industry in the very important area of filled systems and polymer mixtures. The Technical Programme will feature plenary/keynote lectures, invited talks, and oral and poster presentations. It will cover all major relevant topics of current interest in the following areas:

- Polymer Blends
- Interfaces and Interphases
- Polymer Composites and Nanocomposites
- Nanostructured Polymers
- Functional Materials
- Bio-based Polymers and Biocomposites
- Modern Applications of Polymer systems

We are looking forward to welcoming polymer scientists from all over the World to participate in the conference.
